

Purpose and Rationale:

The Yukon medical education bursary is intended to support people who live or have lived in the Yukon in attending medical school. Canadian studies have indicated that it is people from rural and remote areas who are most likely to return to practice in those areas. On the basis of these studies, it is anticipated that some of the people who receive the Yukon medical education bursary support will return to provide medical service to Yukon residents.

Policy:

The Yukon medical education bursary will be made available to up to 2 new students per year.

$10,000/year for up to 4 years of medical school

$15,000/year for up to 2 years during medical residency, Family Medicine only

Eligibility Criteria:

Applicants shall be required to provide the following information in order to be eligible to receive the bursary:

- Proof of Canadian citizenship or landed immigrant status maintained throughout the period of the bursary.
- Proof of current or previous residency in the Yukon of at least 3 consecutive years within the last 5 years or of having received the Yukon Grant provided by the Yukon Department of Education.
- Copy of letter of acceptance into an approved Canadian medical education program. This can be conditional pending final acceptance.
- An eligible person who starts medical education in a country other than Canada can become eligible for the bursary when and if they transfer into an approved Canadian medical education program. (For example, could be eligible during Family Medicine residency if that residency occurs in Canada.)
- Individuals who are presently in medical school or Family Medicine residency programs in Canada who meet eligibility criteria may apply for the bursary for the period remaining in their education and/or residency.

Selection:

From the eligible applicants, two new students each year will be approved according to their ability to meet one or more of the following selection criteria:

- Demonstrated interest and/or commitment in health care services as indicated through personal, employment, education or volunteer history (references with contact information will be required.)
- Interest in practicing family medicine in Yukon on completion of medical education
- Yukon First Nation citizen

Terms of Bursary

Once a person qualifies to receive the bursary, they may continue receiving it for a maximum of 4 years of medical school and 2 years of residency for a total of 6 years, provided that the student maintains academic achievement standards required by the program.

A person who has been selected to receive the bursary and who subsequently takes leave from medical school or Family Medicine residency will be permitted to continue receiving the bursary provided that the person continues to meet eligibility criteria and academic achievement standards. The bursary will not be paid during a period of leave of absence from school or residency.

Applications for part-time studies will be considered on a case-by-case basis. The amount of the bursary would be prorated according to the number of courses being taken in relation to a full-time course load.

Method of payment

Payment will be made directly to the student.

Once approved for a full- or part-time bursary, a medical student or Family Medicine Resident will be paid the full amount of the bursary in September of each year.

Payment for the second and subsequent years of study will be made only after submitting proof of successful completion of the previous year of study and proof of enrollment in the next sequential year of study.
