

Public Notice

Please be advised that uninspected meat products are being served at this event. Consuming uninspected meat products poses an increased risk of contracting a foodborne illness. The integrity of the supply chain for these meat products is not approved by the Government of Yukon. Consuming the meat products at this event is at your own risk.